Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Knights of Valhalla Introduction It appears that Michael Mickey Ross cannot stay retired as he continues to get involved in cases coming into his office at Yankee Investigations. His business is booming and he never thought the day would come when he complained about too much business, but, that day has come. Even when Ross raised prices his business kept growing and it didn't seem to matter what he charged. He had a love-hate connection with his work and couldn't get it out of his system. What kept him captivated were the challenge of the investigation and the thrill of the chase. Because he was the boss, and had this fascination, he cherry picked the cases that titillated and stirred his curiosity most. AS AN AUTHOR - I truly believe that no one can say precisely how books should be written. I purposely try to write action-packed, fast moving stories. For that reason, at times, I'm not addressing the needs of those readers who prefer slow moving stories. I don't particularly like reading a book that is crammed with superfluous words. Private investigator Mickey Ross is the primary fictional character I write about. I have gently infused many of my real life's experiences into the soul of this imaginary character. When he was a detective on the NYPD he conducted multiple investigations that ran concurrently. I much prefer to enhance the original storyline with an additional tale related to the protagonist as opposed to adding superfluous words. Therefore, a few Mickey novels contain more than one story but they are all interrelated, fast moving, action-packed adventures that will hold your interest until the last...
