Call Me Queen (Paperback)

By Cyrene Renee

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Call Me Queen is a wonderful collection of poems and stories about seven young women. These young ladies have all endured, learned, failed and triumphed throughout the years allowing them to grow into maturity. The characters Crystal, Celeste, Camille, Chasity, Cilicia, Corrine and Constance even though unable to see life through rose colored glasses, their optimism still manages to flourish despite the odds. Crystal is the youngest and most impressionable character of the novel begins to understand that life isn't all made up of fairytales, but her youth is kept sacred and pure. Dealing with the disappointments of her drug addicted father at such a young age, she is introduced to her strength and boundless endurance. Celeste the adolescent of the tale yearns for love and acceptance from her mother. Her sweetness creates a compassion that the closest of those around her will never show. She wishes to find her voice as she takes on the responsibility of enduring her mother's demons. Camille is the disrupted teenager seeking peace. Striving to create her own path during a...
