Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Second Annual Report of the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Maryland, to the Comptroller of the Treasury Department, December 1, 1873 The confidence manifested lav all Insurance Con paniestransacting busi ness in Maryland in the superior management of the Fire Department of Baltimore City, is well founded; yet but little protection could be given by that Department to some of the most important localities, and especially is this the case with the property of the State bordering on the harbor, as it would be almost an llllpossbllllty to reach some of the State warehouses with the city fire engines; and to this end the Commissioner would suggest that it might be a proper and justifiable act on the part ofthe Legislature to appropriate from the funds derived from insurance com panics, a sufiieient sum to build and equip a fire boat, which, when com pleted, should be placed in charge of the City Fire Department. Any one familiar with the harbor of Baltimore City will, at a glance, see the advan tages to be derived from the use of such...
