Excerpt: . . . 11 These are not easy or popular issues and I commend the President for his bold leadership, in stepping forward, issuing another kind of wake-up call, to focus the bright light of public attention on these issues. The Chairmanship of this Committee often is not an easy or popular job, so I also commend you for your leadership, Mr. Chairman. I agree with the President, and with my colleagues who also have come here today to talk about their bills, on many of the broad, key principles necessary for a lasting solution. Increased enforcement is part of the solution - but only part. In the last decade, we have tripled the number of agents securing our borders and enforcing our immi-gration laws. Worker identification checks have intensified. Formal removals have increased sixfold. However, the population of undocumented individuals living here has more than doubled. Consider, also,...
